

Middle-Income Retirees Weigh In on the Affordable Care Act (ACA)

What Retirees Want from the National ACA Discussion

Less ACA Political Grandstanding

More Unbiased ACA Information

The Best and Worst Aspects of ACA

68%

Eliminates pre-existing condition exclusions

60%

Offers a free Medicare annual wellness visit

60%

Includes initiatives to make Medicare more efficient

52%

Requiring all Americans to own health insurance or pay a penalty

Best Aspects

Worst Aspect

Retiree Confidence in Their ACA Understanding

23%

Confident

49%

Not Confident

Medicare Wellness Visits Within 12 Months

Nearly nine in 10 (86%) of middle-income Americans with Medicare indicate they have had a wellness visit within the past 12 months

Sources: Bankers Life and Casualty Company Center for a Secure Retirement, Middle-Income Retirees Weigh In on the Affordable Care Act, 2013.

This material is intended to serve as a general resource only and is not intended to provide specific advice to regarding specific needs or requirements that may be mandated by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.